

Switch on to safety

Here's a few safety tips you and your friends should know.

For more electricity safety information visit ausgrid.com.au

If you see a dangerous situation tell an adult.

Keep water away from electrical appliances and power cords.

Play in open spaces away from electricity poles, towers and powerlines.

Stay away from electricity substations and power equipment.

Never put a metal object in a toaster or power point.

Know what to do in an electrical emergency.

